The greatest enthusiasm reigned at Richmond College on yesterday, when it became known that Mr. E. A. Dunlon, Jr., had accited the position of director of athletics, to which he was elected by the trustees on Wednesslay. The news came by telegram from Mr. Dunlon and culcidy spread throughout the whole student body. All are delighted, and mone more so than the president and members of the faculty. It means quited a departure for the college, too, for until recently athletics at the college have been left to take care of itself. But as in nearly every college in the country, the faculty has realized its responsibility in the matter of athletics, and has assumed it. As a result, purity in athletics has been secured and a permanent basis for the future laid. Now the coming of such a man as Mr. Dunlon is a graduate of Bowdoin of this renewed activity.
